Appendix: Important Notice for Expecting Mother and Elderly Participants Aged 70+

Please read this undertaking and the following participation notice carefully, and confirm that you understand and agree to all contents.

1. To help safeguard your journey, we recommend that you purchase appropriate travel insurance before joining the tour, and that at least one family member accompany you on the trip.
2. For participants who are under 18 years old, expecting mother, or elderly (aged 80 or above), we will only accept the booking if they are accompanied by at least one adult relative or friend aged under 75. Note: Participants who are expecting mother or elderly (aged 70+) must also sign the "Participation Commitment Disclaimer" at the time of booking, for the protection of both parties. We further recommend that expecting mother and elderly participants purchase appropriate insurance before joining the tour.
