RESPONSIBILITIES AND LIABILITY

1. GOEUGO acts as an agent and/or intermediary for independent suppliers. As a result, it retains contractors to provide coach services, accommodation and travel-related services.
2. GOEUGO accepts no responsibility for losses or any additional expenses or and distress due to delay, sickness, weather, strikes or any other causes.
3. Participants shall carry their own risk assessment with regard to loss, injury to persons or property. GOEUGO is not liable for loss, injury, accident, damage, delay or charges made during the tour.
4. Participants accept full responsibility for losses and expenses due to delay, sickness, weather, strikes, wars, epidemic, quarantine and itinerary changes.
5. goEUgo will not be held responsible if passenger is carrying unlawful items or irregularities and are refused entry at any country border. Legal assistance and support are wholly the responsibility of the participant.
6. Participants are wholly responsible to safeguard personal belongings during the tour. GOEUGO tour manager and driver cannot be held liable nor should they be asked to compensate for lost or stolen personal belongings due to theft, loss and other causes during the tour.
7. If the participant(s) for any reason are overdue in missing their scheduled flight or bus departure, GOEUGO will not be responsible nor refund fees and costs incurred.
8. Covid-19 tests when required at border crossings between countries must be borne by the participant(s) themselves.
9. GOEUGO cannot ensure individual assistance on our coaches for wheelchair access, the itinerary is not advised for wheelchair users and persons less mobile.
10. GOEUGO reserves all copyright to use and reuse images and videos taken during tours. If you object, please indicate this to your tour manager in advance.
11. Important note: If passengers accidentally or maliciously damage the tourist bus and all facilities within the hotel area during the journey, they must take all consequences themselves (responsibility) and compensate for all related losses. For more serious damage, there is an opportunity to bear local criminal responsibility. Please take good care of public property and enjoy the joy of your journey!

TOUR RULES

1. Each participant is allowed to bring one luggage on board (weight below 30kg, the sum of length, width and depth must not exceed 158cm). If passenger brings more than one subject to space available to charge each additional piece of luggage at €5/ day. Availability to accommodate cannot be guaranteed.
2. Most attractions points in Europe cannot be reached directly by coaches, and will require participants to travel on foot. If the participants are of limited mobility, this tour may not be suitable for you. We cannot offer compensation or refunds for missed attractions, so please think twice before joining the tour. Once the booking is completed, it also means accepting the terms and conditions set by the tour operator.
3. Tour managers and drivers are your hosts during the tour. They will help you explore and make the most of your time. Their passion for travel and local knowledge will enrich your holiday experience. Gratuity is paid directly to the tour manager and driver. We have set a obligatory tip of € 10 / £ 10 per passenger per day during your tour. Please prepare cash as a token of your appreciation.
4. Present your Booking Voucher to the tour manager when you board the coach. GOEUGO cannot allow delays by a single passenger or group. A participant's negligence and late arrival can result in missed connections for other passengers. In case of emergencies, please call our emergency numbers as printed on your Booking Voucher.
5. Participants are responsible to ensure that they are in possession of all necessary travel and health documents before departure. Further the participant must ensure that he/she (all members of their party) comply with required Visa, Passport or other travel documentation for the countries to visit. GOEUGO will not be liable if customers fail this responsibility and are refused entry, or delay the rest of the tour group. Any financial losses due to the failure of carrying the correct travel documents are at one's own expense.
6. Please avoid bringing valuables and precious jewelry. This includes passport and money. The tour company, driver and the tour manager will not be responsible for any losses incurred.
7. It is forbidden to bring contraband or other prohibited goods by law of each country that you are visiting. Smoking is prohibited in public places and restaurants (hotel rooms included) in Europe. Fines can be EUR1,000. Please pay attention to signage where tourists are not allowed to sit or rest. Major attractions in Europe have heritage care rules punishable by fines.
8. Please ensure that you have sufficient cash to pay for entrance tickets. Do refer to the Optional On-Tour Price List. Meals, tips, city taxes/entrance fees and expenses are payable on top of the tour price and itinerary. Please remember to pack prescribed medication, motion sickness medication, and other essentials for personal use.
9. GOEUGO is not liable if passengers decide to withdraw from tour before the final disembarking point. If the participant(s) for any reason have missed their flight or bus connection, the tour operator will not be responsible and refund fees and losses due to this.
10. GOEUGO reserves the right to remove any individual from the tour if his/her conduct is harmful or irreconcilable towards the welfare of other passengers in the tour group. GOEUGO shall be under no liability thereafter to such person. The unused portion of the tour is non-refundable.
11. GOEUGO reserves the right to alter or curtail the itinerary and offer substitute hotels as deemed necessary due to safety concerns, weather, accidents, strikes, unrest, epidemic, or quarantine. These decisions are made due to concerns outside of control, and tour compensation cannot be obtained due to this.
12. Whilst every effort is made to operate this tour as itinerary, on occasion it may be necessary to make changes to the accommodation, the routing or order of an itinerary, refunds or compensation will not be payable for alterations to the itinerary or nightly accommodation.

13. GOEUGO condemns acts of violence and cannot be liable for any aggressive acts on tour or while participants share a twin room.
14. GOEUGO acts only as an operator for independent suppliers. The company retains contractors to provide transportation, accommodation and other travel-related services. GOEUGO is not liable for losses, expenses or distress due to delay, sickness, weather, strikes or other causes.
15. Purchase of European travel insurance is strongly recommended. Please ensure that you are sufficiently covered for your entire trip.
16. GOEUGO cannot ensure individual assistance on our coaches for wheelchair access, the itinerary is not advised for wheelchair users and persons less mobile.
17. The temperature difference between day and night in Europe is substantial, the annual average temperature exceeds 30 degrees for less than two months, and European countries have strong environmental protection awareness. Therefore, hotels in Europe may not have standard air conditioning.
18. GOEUGO reserves all copyright to use and reuse images and videos taken during tours. If you object, please indicate this to your tour manager in advance.
19. GOEUGO may combine English, Chinese and Vietnamese speaking tours on the same bus. Please respect others in your tour group.

PRECAUTIONS FOR TRANSFERS SERVICES

1. The airport transfer service is a group pick-up and drop-off service. The driver is only responsible for the transfer from the airport to the group hotel and does not have any information regarding the goEUgo tour and tour group.
2. Clients who have booked the airport transfer service should confirm that their name and telephone number are correct and up to date prior their departure. Please make sure clients' mobile phone and mobile phone subscription can receive calls in Europe by enabling mobile phone roaming!
3. After arrival at the destination airport, it will take clients at least 30 – 45 minutes to pick up their luggage and go through border control. The transfer driver will wait for the clients at the airport 30 minutes after the arrival time of the clients at the airport.
4. The waiting time at the airport of the driver for the client for the transfer service is maximum 90 minutes after the arrival time of the flight, in case the waiting time is exceeded the driver may leave and is not liable for doing so. In the occurrence the driver needs to return to the airport to pick up the clients after the 90 minutes waiting time, a new service charge is applicable. If the flight is delayed by the airline and the transfer driver is not notified in a timely matter the transfer fee is non-refundable. Clients can try to claim compensation of the transfer fee from the airline themselves.
5. Regardless whether clients need to pick up checked baggage or not, they should go to the correct flight baggage conveyor belt number in order use the correct exit of the arrival hall and not take a random exit. The driver shall be waiting at the arrival hall exit of the designated flight with a name board of the registered client. If the clients are unable to find the driver with the correct name board there is no need to panic. Client should remain in the area and call the emergency number +31-643 448 738 for inquiries.
6. If the clients know their flight is delayed, changed, or cancelled clients should send a SMS and/or call the emergency number +31-643 448 738 to amend the transfer arrangement. Our operations team will do its best effort to reschedule the transfer however there will no guarantee the transfer arrangement can be changed. The transfer fee is non-refundable whether the transfer arrangement can be amended or not. Client can try to claim compensation from the airline for the transfer fee themselves. If clients need assistance upon arrival, they can call our team on the emergency number.
7. The transfer service from group hotel to the airport is arranged four hours prior to the scheduled flight departure time. If the clients experience any delay to its departure airport such as traffic jams, accidents, and other unforeseen events our team will do its best efforts to solve the situation. However, if clients are unable to make their flights due to a force majeure as mentioned above goEUgo company will not be liable under any circumstances.

8. The allowed number of baggage pieces per client is two pieces (one cabin baggage piece and one check-in baggage piece). Any other baggage pieces exceeding this number is subject to a surcharge fee of 20 Euro per extra piece of baggage.

PRECAUTIONS FOR PRE- AND POST- TOUR ACCOMMODATION

1. Clients who have booked a pre-tour accommodation they can check in at the hotel's reception using the booking under the name of 【goEUgo Limited】, please provide the hotel reception the issued hotel voucher. A passport is required for hotel check-in. If clients have ordered a transfer from goEUgo the driver will transfer clients to group hotel.
2. Please note that international and European hotels have a check-in time of 3:00 pm. If clients arrive prior to the check-in time of the hotel and the room is not yet available they can rest in the hotel lobby first or clients can leave their luggage at the reception (if possible) and spend some time outside and return to check-in at 3:00 pm. Thank you for your understanding!
3. The temperature difference between day and night in Europe can be large and the annual average temperature exceeding 30 degrees Celsius is at most two months. Please note, European countries have a strong awareness of environmental protection, therefore some hotels in Europe are not equipped with air-conditioning. This lack of air-conditioning does not mean the hotel facilities are not up to standard. Thank you for your understanding.
4. Our tour guide will arrive with the group at the hotel usually between 8:00 – 9:00 pm on the day clients check-in for their pre-tour accommodation. The tour guide will contact clients at the hotel to inform them about next day departure time of the tour group. In case the tour guide is not able to contact the self-checked-in clients, the guide will leave a note for the clients at their hotel room door. Usually breakfast next day is at 7:00 am, if clients go to attend breakfast, they will be able to meet the tour guide and the other group members.
5. Clients who have booked a post-tour accommodation will not need to worry. The tour guide will send the clients directly to the hotel where they will stay after ending their tour. If clients also booked a transfer from the hotel to the airport the tour guide will provide the time and details of the transfer service.
6. The pre-tour and post-tour accommodation is only an additional support service so our team is not able to help clients share rooms to save on the single-room supplement. Please understand.
7. If clients have any URGENT enquires during the check-in process at the group hotel, they can call the emergency number (+31-643-448 738).

GUARANTEED DEPARTURES THROUGHOUT THE YEAR (Weekly)

[Monday] Frankfurt → Bonn → Cologne → Amsterdam (500 km)

The morning begins with a leisurely drive north-west from Frankfurt to Bonn, the capital of the former West Germany until reunification. The national government is now in Berlin, but Bonn retains a rich history that is well worth exploring. Discover the city's secrets on an orientation stroll through its streets, walking past highlights such as the Rococo-fronted town hall and Ludwig Van Beethoven Haus, a museum celebrating the life of the much-loved composer. Then it's on to Cologne, where you'll head inside the city's glorious Gothic Cathedral, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The rest of the afternoon is yours to explore Cologne further, to do a spot of local shopping or to simply relax with a suitably refreshing German brew. After lunch the day is rounded off with a drive into the Netherlands.

Overnight stay in Amsterdam or city nearby.

[Tuesday] Amsterdam → Zaanse Schans → Amsterdam (50 km)

A day of delights begins with a leisurely trip through the Dutch countryside, where you'll get to sample at close quarters some of the things that the Netherlands is traditionally famous for: clogs, cheese and windmills. Call in at the hugely popular model town of Zaanse Schans. Next, you'll head from the quiet countryside to the cosmopolitan city as your journey takes you back to Amsterdam. After visiting a well-known diamond factory, where you'll see the unique cutting techniques that have been practised here since the 16th century, you can take an optional hour-long pre-dinner canal cruise, which is a great way to discover more about this unique European city. After disembarking you'll walk to one of the city's grandest areas, Dam Square, where the Royal Palace is located and the King's birthday celebration takes place. You'll have photo opportunities here, free time for shopping or further sightseeing, and then round the day off with dinner. Overnight stay in Amsterdam or city nearby

From mid-March to mid-May the tour will also visit Keukenhof Garden, a 32-hectare seasonal exhibition of beautifully coloured and scented displays of spring flowers - most notably millions of tulips. More information please see: www.keukenhof.com

[Wednesday] Amsterdam → Brussels → Paris (500 km)

After leaving Amsterdam in the morning you'll head south across the border into Brussels, the Belgian capital and political centre of the European Union. On the way, the tour stops to see the distinctive Atomium monument, a cell-shaped structure of stainless-steel spheres and tubes built for the 1958 World's Fair. In the centre of Brussels itself an orientation tour will call in at the exquisite Grand Place, as well as seeing the famous impish Manneken Pis Statue. After some free time, you can try some mouth-watering Belgian delights. Then from Brussels we will head south again across the French border and on to the bright lights of Paris. Overnight stay in Paris or city nearby

[Thursday] Paris → Versailles → Paris (60 km)

Paris is your oyster over the next two days as you enjoy guided tours around one of the world's most celebrated cities. Your Parisian adventures get off to a spectacular start with a drive along the famous Champs Élysées to the Place de la Concorde, which played such a key part in the French Revolution. You'll also get to see the iconic Arc de Triomphe here too, the imposing monument that sits near the western end of the avenue and commemorates the fallen of the revolution and Napoleonic wars. You'll take in another significant historical building next as you head to L'Hôtel National des Invalides, where Napoleon's tomb is located, followed by a stop at the most legendary of all Paris's icons: the Eiffel Tower. Finally, you'll travel on the coach out through the Parisian suburbs to the splendid Palace of Versailles, the vast regal château that was the residence of the royal family until the start of the revolution in 1789. Today the palace is another popular Parisian attraction. In the evening, you can enjoy one of our optional Paris evening shows.

Visit time: 14:00 – 14:30pm

[Friday] Paris

In the morning, depart for the pier and take a sightseeing boat cruise on the Seine River at your own expense your, a great sightseeing option that offers splendid views of iconic Parisian landmarks, including Notre-Dame Cathedral and Pont Alexandre III. After a lunch, we visit to the Louvre, one of the world's greatest art museums. Here you'll set your eyes upon some of history's most famous masterpieces, including the Venus de Milo, Winged Victory of Samothrace (also called Nike of Samothrace), and Leonardo da Vinci's Mona Lisa. Opt for a guided gallery tour, which will enhance your experience and allow you to browse through hundreds of works in just a few hours. Afterwards, you have an option of having a French 4 course dinner and show experience or spend time shopping at the legendary department stores Galeries Lafayette.

[Saturday] Paris → Reims → Luxembourg (420 km)

The Red Line tour leaves from Paris for a delightful scenic journey through the rolling countryside of the Champagne region, famous the world over for the sparkling white wine produced here. Enjoy seeing the historic attractions of provincial capital Reims, including the city's cathedral – a key national heritage site, where coronations of French kings took place from the 11th century onwards. History and tradition are equally evident in your next location: Luxembourg, the world's only remaining Grand Duchy. After arriving in refined Luxembourg city, you'll be introduced on foot to the main places of interest, including the Place de Constitution and Pont Adolphe, before having time for further exploration on your own.

Overnight stay in Luxembourg or city nearby

[Sunday] Luxembourg → Trier → Koblenz → Rudesheim am Rhein → Frankfurt (400 km)

Today we leave Luxembourg behind and head across another European border into Germany. The first stop is historic Trier, Germany's oldest city and the birthplace of Karl Marx. You'll have the chance to see from the outside the house where the influential philosopher was born, which now functions as the Karl Marx Haus museum. Your walking tour then takes you into the centre of Trier; here you can look around the city's impressive cathedral, where the celebrated Holy Robe – said to be the tunic of Christ – is preserved and occasionally displayed. Trier is also known as 'The Second Rome' (Constantine served as an administrator here for 10 years), and significant legacies of the once-great empire remain today. The highlight is undoubtedly Porta Nigra, the best-preserved Roman city gate north of the Alps, which you'll get to see and photograph. After an exciting morning in Trier, you'll drive on to Koblenz, famous as the location of the confluence of the Rhine and Mosel rivers. Here you have the option of indulging in a relaxing lunch alongside the water, then afterwards you can also choose to add on a scenic Rhine boat cruise for some memorable city vistas. Back on dry land you'll drive through the wine-making town of Rüdesheim (depending on road and traffic conditions). Then it is on to Frankfurt am Main, where you'll discover the delights of Römerberg, a charming plaza with a distinctive medieval town hall as its centrepiece

GREEN LINE (Go South) – 7 Day Tour

GUARANTEED DEPARTURES THROUGHOUT THE YEAR (Weekly)

[Saturday] Paris → Lucerne (650 km)

After boarding the luxury coach in Paris, sit back and enjoy a scenic journey across classic French countryside en route to mountainous Switzerland. You'll pass through Basel, which is located at the point where the Swiss, French and German borders meet, before arriving at the picturesque lakeside city of Lucerne, nestled at the foot of the snow-capped Swiss Alps. If time allows, you will have a chance to shop or take pictures.

Overnight stay in Lucerne or city nearby

[Sunday] Lucerne → Milan → Venice (400 km)

Head south from Lucerne through spectacular Switzerland and into northern Italy, where your first stop will be Milan, fashion capital of the world. Your orientation tour will introduce you to the city's iconic sights, including the vast Gothic cathedral (Duomo). You'll also see the planet's oldest shopping mall, the 19th-century Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II, where you can wander among the boutique shops and have lunch in one of the refined cafes. After enjoying the many delights of Milan, you'll head to another vintage Italian city: Venice.

Overnight stay in Venice Island or city nearby

[Monday] Venice → Rome (550 km)

Spend the morning in the company of a knowledgeable local guide as you explore Venice, the most magical of cities. Begin with a waterbus ride to San Marco Island, a memorable crossing of the lagoon that gives you a real taste of the city's charm as you approach the dreamy spires and distinctive waterside buildings. Once on the island you'll be led around some of Venice's best-known locations, beginning in the Piazza with the Basilica di San Marco, a stunning piece of Byzantine architecture. You'll also see the legendary Bridge of Sighs, which appears on many a postcard or picture of Venice and connects the old prison to the interrogation rooms in the Doge's Palace. Afterwards you'll have a chance to see some traditional Venetian craftwork at close quarters with a demonstration by Murano glassblowers; their exquisite creations make excellent souvenirs. Of course, the ultimate Venice activity is to ride through the warren of waterways on a gondola, and for most people this optional excursion is a must. Step aboard, relax and enjoy this once-in-a-lifetime experience. Transfer to Rome in the afternoon.

Overnight stay in Rome or city nearby

[Tuesday] Rome → Vatican → Arezzo (280 km)

Your day in Rome starts with a visit to the smallest country in the world, The Vatican City, which lies at the heart of the Italian capital. Here you'll marvel at St Peter's Basilica, home to Pope Francis and arguably the most significant site in Christianity. The exquisitely beautiful Basilica has been present here for almost 1,700 years and contains a bewildering collection of paintings, frescoes and design crafted by some of humanity's most famous artists, which you can explore. Alternatively, you can choose to add on the optional Sistine Chapel tour to view Michelangelo's famous painted ceiling. Next you will visit famous sights of Rome; the Colosseum, built in AD 72. History comes to life as you imagine yourself witnessing gladiatorial combat inside the spectacular Amphitheatre. After the Colosseum, get up close to the nearby Arch of Constantine, which dates back to the fourth century AD. To complete our visit to Rome we will visit the magnificent Reunification Memorial Hall, the Victor Emmanuel II National Monument, which was built to honour King Victor Emmanuel II who unified Italy. In the afternoon we'll depart for Florence, known as the cradle of culture.

Overnight stay in Arezzo or city nearby

[Wednesday] Arezzo → Florence → Pisa → Genoa nearby city (250 km)

BLUE LINE (Go East) – 7 Day Tour

GUARANTEED DEPARTURES THROUGHOUT THE YEAR (Weekly)

[Monday] Frankfurt → Prague (530 km)

After boarding the luxury coach in Frankfurt, sit back and enjoy a scenic ride through some classic German countryside en route to the Czech Republic. Prague, one of Europe's most ornate cities, is your first destination. You will arrive in the evening, ready to discover this charming capital city with its fairy-tale architecture, the following morning.

Overnight stay in Prague or city nearby

[Tuesday] Prague → Bratislava (330 km)

Your Prague adventure begins with a spectacular walk along the Royal Route, following the traditional coronation path of the kings and queens of old Bohemia. You'll start from the top of Castle Hill in the Hradcany district, famous for its views over the red-roofed old city, and then tour Prague Castle. The castle has been the historic seat of Bohemia royalty since the 9th century, as well as home to the nation's presidents in recent times. Your exploration then heads off around the imposing gothic St. Vitus Cathedral, the Old Royal Palace, St. George's Basilica and along Golden Lane, an ancient thoroughfare lined with some wonderful traditional buildings. Later you will stroll across the iconic Charles Bridge, which arches gracefully over the Vltava, and on through the winding alleys to the Old Town Square, where you can see the City Hall and one of Prague's most well-known sights, the Astronomical Clock. After lunch in the square, you'll make the scenic transfer from Prague to the hotel in or near the Slovakian capital, Bratislava.

Overnight stay in Bratislava or city nearby

[Wednesday] Bratislava → Budapest (200 km)

On Wednesday morning you will arrive in Hungary, the fourth country of the tour. Its capital, Budapest, is known as the Pearl of the Danube, and is essentially two different cities joined together: Buda is on the west of the river, Pest on the east, each with its own distinct characteristics. One of the best ways of seeing this unique location is by taking a river cruise, which many people choose to do. After a morning of activity, you'll relax over lunch at Buda Palace, and then have a chance to look at the exhibitions in the Budapest History Museum and Hungarian National Gallery, or do a spot of souvenir shopping. Next you'll explore both sides of the city on a cultural and historic tour. Highlights on the Buda side of the Danube include the towered terrace of Fisherman's Bastion, the medieval Matthias Church and a walk up to the summit of Gellért Hill for panoramic views. While over in Pest the sights include the expansive Heroes' Square and Hungary's dramatic riverside Parliament Building. In the evening, you can choose to round off an eventful day with an optional dinner in the heart of Budapest, where you can sample traditional dishes such as goose liver, goulash, duck leg and local wine, accompanied by Hungarian folkdance and music.

Overnight stay in Budapest or city nearby

[Thursday] Budapest → Vienna (250 km)

Today starts with a short journey to another of Europe's grand capitals, Vienna, where you'll get to explore the Austrian city's resplendent palaces, striking churches and prestigious art museums. Your Vienna adventure begins at one of the city's most popular attractions, Schönbrunn Palace, the Rococo-style summer residence of the Habsburg dynasty, rulers of Europe and the Church for many decades. After lunch in this refined setting, you will take a driving tour past many grand, famous buildings, including the City Hall, the Austrian Parliament, Hofburg Palace and Heroes' Square. In the afternoon, you'll have some shopping time, before adding the Wiener Staatsoper (opera house) to your checklist of key Vienna buildings. Later, opt for dinner in the heart of the city or visit St. Stephen's Cathedral, before taking a stroll in Stadtpark, which is known for its range of sculptures, including the famous gilded bronze statue of Johann Strauss II. In the evening, we recommend the option of attending a Viennese waltz concert, which will allow you the unforgettable experience of hearing the music of Mozart and Strauss in the place where it was composed.

Overnight stay in Vienna or city nearby

[Friday] Vienna → Mondsee → Munich (440 km)

From Vienna it's on to another Austrian gem, Mondsee. Mondsee is a town located on the shore of the Lake Mondsee. The town is home to the historic medieval Mondsee Abbey. The cloister church was used for the site of the wedding in The Sound of Music. After lunch you will continue to cross the German border to Munich. After arriving in Munich, you'll visit the Marienplatz and the New Town Hall. Marienplatz is a central square in the city centre of Munich since 1158. The New Town Hall is at the northern part of Marienplatz. It hosts the city government including the city council, offices of the mayors and part of the administration since 1874. Or you can enjoy a German beer in one of the beer gardens before going to the hotel.

Overnight stay in Munich or city nearby

[Saturday] Munich → Vaduz → Mt Titlis → Lucerne → Zurich (505 km)

You'll leave the big cities behind today. Before you head for one of the world's most famous mountain ranges – the Swiss Alps – you will make a photo stop in one of the smallest countries in Europe – Liechtenstein. The small picturesque city Vaduz is the capital of Liechtenstein with little boutique shops and the famous Huber shop for all your fine jewellery and watches. The next destination is Engelberg, the stunning Swiss resort. From here you can opt to board a cable car that takes you to the summit of the impressive Mount Titlis. To reach the top of the permanently snow-covered Mt. Titlis you take three different gondolas. You'll ascend the last stage by the world's first revolving gondola, the Titlis Rotair, which delivers spectacular views of the valleys, glaciers, lakes and forests below, and 360° vistas of the surrounding mountains. At the summit the sun terrace is the perfect place to pause and appreciate the breath-taking panoramas. Other highlights include walking across Europe's highest suspension bridge for more phenomenal views from Mt. Titlis. Your next destination is Lucerne. Lucerne is a picturesque city of bridges and towers located in what many people believe to be the "true" Switzerland – picture-postcard mountains, lakes, cowbells, Alpine villages and meadows full of edelweiss flowers. Here you will have time to wander through the charming streets, and see the famous Lion Monument, which Mark Twain once described as "the most mournful and moving piece of stone in the world". This is a great place to get souvenirs like Swiss watches and fine chocolates, before travelling to the overnight stop of Zurich.

Overnight stay in Zurich or city nearby

[Sunday] Zurich → Rhein Falls → Titisee → Frankfurt (450 km)

The final day of the tour begins in Zurich, a city with a reputation as a leading global financial centre. There might be a picture stop at the impressive Lake Zurich, before moving on to Rhine Falls, Europe's biggest waterfall. Next you'll cross back into Germany and the Black Forest, the ancient fir-covered mountain range, which is famous for its creepy folklore and mythical tales. Here you will see the beautiful lake Titisee, where you can stop at one of the many lakeside cafés to enjoy some of the region's best Black Forest cherry gateaux. Cuckoo clocks are made in Titisee, making this the ideal place to pick up a few souvenirs from the local shops, and you'll also get to see a demonstration of how these magical mechanisms work. Finally, you'll head back to Frankfurt.

PURPLE LINE A (Go North) – 7 Day Tour

England & Scotland ~ (Loch Ness)

LINE A : Annual Spring & Summer season Itinerary

GUARANTEED DEPARTURES THROUGHOUT THE YEAR (Weekly April to September)

2nd April – 30 September 2023 / 31st March– 28th September 2024

[Saturday] London

In the early morning, you start a tour of London attractions: Big Ben, House of Parliament, Westminster Abbey, 10 Downing Street, Whitehall, St James' Park, Buckingham Palace and River Thames. Enjoy a delicious meal in Chinatown. In the afternoon, you will visit the famous British Museum, enter St Paul's Cathedral if you have enough time. You can also enjoy the scene of Tower Bridge and Tower of London while sitting in the coach. The Tower of London is a historic castle located on the north bank of the River Thames in central London. It has played a prominent role in English history and served variously as a palace, an armoury, a treasury, a prison, the home of the Royal Mint, the home of the Crown Jewels of England and has been the setting of many bloody battles among British Monarchs. You stay overnight in London, where you can experience the dazzling night scene, or head for a Thames Cruise or musical with a group of friends.

Overnight stay in London or city nearby

[Sunday] London → Cambridge → York (350 km)

After breakfast, it is time to visit the nation's acclaimed educational institution: Cambridge University. In addition to a strong academic atmosphere, Cambridge is where many luminaries started their dreams and hopes for the future with the sight of the pastoral landscapes, picturesque rivers and architecture. The University of Cambridge, a majestic old group of buildings including King's College and Queens College, set among the most rural of bridges. When come to Cambridge, sincerely recommend a trip to "Cambridge Penny", which is carried by a boat with a long pole (part-time job of many college students) to carry people up the river Cambridge. Buying a sweater, postcard or magnet with the Cambridge school badge or the Cambridge University logo is also a favorite souvenir for many people.

Overnight stay in York or city nearby

[Monday] York → Edinburgh (326 km)

York, a true medieval melting pot of Roman, Saxon and Viking culture. The city is mostly intact from the Middle Ages and shows the rustic side of Britain. You visit York Minster, the largest Gothic cathedral in northern Europe. Then you will step up onto York city walls, dating back to Roman times. For those keen to discover little grass-roots shops, there will be time to wander around. When you come to the UK, why not try the English afternoon tea. Here, there is a century-old tea house, and we have prepared enough time to allow you to enjoy an authentic British afternoon tea.

Overnight stay in Edinburgh or city nearby

[Tuesday] Edinburgh → Glasgow (75 km)

After breakfast, Edinburgh is next on our places to visit. Edinburgh is Scotland's compact, hilly capital. It represents the best in Scottish heritage. Wooden barrows of gold single malt whiskey, checked kilts and Scottish bagpipes will make you grow fond of this warm and lively nation of quirky characters. Upon arrival, we first visit Edinburgh Castle, set on the stunning view of volcanic rock structures, where once inside we will admire the oldest royal crown and jewellery. We then continue this royal trail with a visit to Holyrood Palace and the City Hall. Optional is a visit to JK Rowling's Ivory Café where Harry Potter was authored, to enjoy a cup of coffee. Or with your family or friends, you can also go to the photo studio to cosplay as "ancient Scots" to take pictures, which is also a very interesting experience. After enjoying dinner in Edinburgh, coach will drive towards Glasgow. Edinburgh Castle requires pre-booking of tickets online at edinburghcastle.scot/plan-your-visit/tickets. It is recommended to visit between 11:00 AM and 2:00 PM

Overnight stay in Glasgow or city nearby

[Wednesday] Glasgow → Glenfinnan Viaduct → Fort Augustus (Loch Ness Lake) → Loch Lomond → Glasgow (498 km)

Today we enjoy Scotland to the fullest. We head to the Glenfinnan Viaduct. The Hogwarts train was made iconic by the protagonist of the movie Harry Potter, they passed through this bridge, which was built between 1897 and 1901. In summer, steam trains can be seen passing by. It is one of the must-see attractions for Harry Potter fans, and also on the Scottish £10 banknote. Then visit the town with the same name as the ancient Roman emperor Augustus; Fort Augustus. The town is located at the southernmost tip of Loch Ness, with a very picturesque scenery. The Loch Ness Monster is Scotland's oldest and enduring myth and legend, people can take a boat tour at Loch Ness to discover the truth of the Loch Ness Monster. On the way back we pass by Scotland's first national park "Loch Lomond", which is located on the boundary between the Highland and the Lowland fault. There are more than 30 small islands in the lake, and the scenery is beautiful. Of course, we will take pictures along the way.

[Thursday] Glasgow → Gretna Green → Lake District → Manchester (360 km)

In the morning, we drive straight to Lake District, located in the west side of the north of England. On the way, we will stop in Gretna Green, where is a village in the south of Scotland famous for 'runaway marriages' began in 1754. Due to its romantic wedding traditions dating back over centuries, Gretna Green is one of the world's most popular wedding location. After that we continue our journey to Lake District. The Lake District National Park is the most visited national park in the United Kingdom. Each year tens of thousands of visitors travel here to see the thousands of years of geological changes reflected in the intricate natural beauty, lakes, valleys, mountains, waterfalls and natural carved out planning. You can choose our optional to join boat cruise of Lake Windermere, or hop off to the World of Beatrix Potter Attraction. From then onwards we are driving to Manchester, a fashionable, social buzz and dynamic city. This city is not only well-known for being a city of sport, the headquarters of Manchester United, but also England's most productive industrial city. Football fans can enjoy a pilgrimage to the Manchester United Old Trafford grounds or catch a training game. Food lovers can pick a scrumptious restaurant in the nearby Chinatown.

WINTER PURPLE LINE B (Go North) – 7 Day Tour

England & Scotland

Line B : Annual Fall & Winter season itinerary

GUARANTEED DEPARTURES THROUGHOUT THE YEAR (Weekly October to March)

1st October 2023 – 30 March 2024

[Saturday] London

In the early morning, you start a tour of London attractions: Big Ben, House of Parliament, Westminster Abbey, 10 Downing Street, Whitehall, St James' Park, Buckingham Palace and River Thames. Enjoy a delicious meal in Chinatown. In the afternoon, you will visit the famous British Museum, enter St Paul's Cathedral if you have enough time. You can also enjoy the scene of Tower Bridge and Tower of London while sitting in the coach. The Tower of London is a historic castle located on the north bank of the river Thames in central London. It has played a prominent role in English history and served variously as a palace, an armoury, a treasury, a prison, the home of the Royal Mint, the home of the Crown Jewels of England and has been the setting of many bloody battles among British Monarchs. You stay overnight in London, where you can experience the dazzling night scene, or head for a Thames Cruise or musical with a group of friends. Overnight stay in London or city nearby

[Sunday] London → Cambridge → York (350 km)

After breakfast, it is time to visit the nation's acclaimed educational institution: Cambridge University. In addition to a strong academic atmosphere, Cambridge is where many luminaries started their dreams and hopes for the future with the sight of the pastoral landscapes, picturesque rivers and architecture. The University of Cambridge, a majestic old group of buildings including King's College and Queens College, set among the most rural of bridges. You continue your journey to York, a true medieval melting pot of Roman, Saxon and Viking culture. The city is mostly intact from the Middle Ages and shows the rustic side of Britain. You visit York Minster, the largest Gothic cathedral in northern Europe. Then you will step up onto York city walls, dating back to Roman times. For those keen to discover little grass-roots shops, there will be time to wander around.

YELLOW LINE (Sunny Side Up) – 7 Day Tour

Spain

Portugal

GUARANTEED DEPARTURES THROUGHOUT THE YEAR (Weekly)

[Saturday] Madrid → Zaragoza (320 km)

The Yellow Line tour starts from the capital of Spain, Madrid, where you will pass by the Cibeles Fountain, and then arrive and visit Plaza Mayor, Piazza di Spagna, and Royal Palace of Madrid. The Royal Palace of Madrid was built by the Spanish Royal Family, showing the magnificent and splendid former empire and its historical grandeur. Then you'll arrive at the Puerta del Sol, a public square in Madrid. You can find the Km 0 square tile on the pavement, which represents the Puerta del Sol, the centre of the radial network of Spanish roads. In the afternoon, we say farewell to Madrid and head to Zaragoza. After arriving in Zaragoza, you'll visit the Basilica of Our Lady of the Pillar, which is a Roman Catholic Church in the city. The Basilica venerates the Blessed Virgin Mary, praised as "Mother of the Hispanic People". It is reputed to be the first church dedicated to Mary in history. There are a lot of coffee shops and restaurants around the Basilica.

[Sunday] Zaragoza → Barcelona (300 km)

In the morning, you will drive directly to the Spanish warm and charming coastal city of Barcelona. After arrival you will visit the Columbus Monument and Las Ramblas, followed by the Sagrada Família, which is a large Roman Catholic Church in Barcelona, designed by Spanish architect Antoni Gaudí. Gaudí's unique, colourful, fairy tale decorations can be seen throughout the city and makes the place feel like a fantasy of the artist's mind. Then it's on to a photo stop at Camp Nou, a football stadium in Barcelona, which has been the home of FC Barcelona since its completion in 1957. You'll also visit Estadi Olímpic Lluís Companys, the main stadium for the 1992 Summer Olympics located in Montjuïc, a large hill to the southwest of Barcelona, which overlooks the city. The remaining time is spent in the bustling Plaza Catalonia, where you can have free time and do some shopping.

Overnight stay in Barcelona or city nearby

Due to a limited daily access control in Sagrada Família church, to avoid disappointment, we recommend customers who strongly request to visit this place to book tickets online in advance at www.sagradafamilia.org

Visit time for reservation: 2:00 - 2:30 pm.

[Monday] Barcelona → Valencia → Alicante (525 km)

After having breakfast at the hotel, you'll leave Barcelona for Spain's third largest city, Valencia. In Valencia's history, the city was celebrated as the gateway to the Mediterranean. It's commercially and culturally rich, with Moorish and Arab culture and food. Although today's Valencia is less prominent, it's still an important city for large commerce exhibitions and trade fairs to be held in throughout the year. Upon arrival, you will visit the Modernisme Plaza of the City Hall of Valencia, Valencia's Ancient City Gates and the Valencia Cathedral, where the true Holy Grail is preserved, a photo stop at Ciudad de las Artes y las Ciencias. After the tour the day is rounded off with a drive into Alicante.

Overnight stay in Alicante or city nearby

[Tuesday] Alicante → Mijas → Granada (554km)

In the morning, you depart for the city of Granada on the plateau of the Andalusian province. This historic city has been ruled by the Visigoths and Arabs. It became the last stronghold of the Arab dynasty during its eight-hundred-year-long rule of the Iberian Peninsula. In the 15th century, King Ferdinand successfully expelled the Arabs and managed to unite Spain. You will have a picture moment in front of the Alhambra, a Moorish citadel and palace, also known as the Red Palace. Following that, embark on a drive to the Mijas, a self-paid group activity, to visit famous white village and winding streets, charming nooks and crannies, flowerdecked house and numerous tiny squares. Then you will continue to tour the old city of Granada, with its exquisite and delicate architecture.

Overnight stay in Granada or city nearby

[Wednesday] Granada → Ronda → Seville (312km)

In the morning, Embark on a self-paid group activity in the morning and head to Ronda, the birthplace of Spanish bullfighters. Ronda proudly holds the distinction of being home to Spain's oldest bullring, where the love, hatred, and passion of the fighters of that era were witnessed. Despite its seemingly serene facade, Ronda emanates a vibrant Spanish charm that is unmatched. The town's romantic and peaceful white houses perched on the dramatic cliffs serve as a testament to its allure. Then tour will go northbound to the largest city of the autonomous region of Andalusia, Seville. This city was the capital of the Muslim dynasty, considered to be the guardian angel of culture in Andalusia and the birthplace of the flamenco dance. Seville is the primary setting of many operas, of which the best known is Bizet's Carmen. As the fourth largest city in Spain, it has hosted the Universal Exposition of Seville in 1992. Upon arrival, you will visit the Seville Cathedral, the largest Gothic cathedral and the third-largest church in the world. Its completion dates back to the early 16th century and now the cathedral halls serve as the Royal Chapel, the burial place of the kings for over a century. The tomb of Christopher Columbus, who discovered the New World, is also in the church as a credit to the great navigator. From there onwards you will see the Alcázar of Seville, which used to be a Muslim palace and a Spanish Royal Palace. The upper levels of the Alcázar are still used by the royal family as the official Seville residence today, which makes it the oldest royal palace still in use in Europe. It was registered in 1987 by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site, along with the Seville Cathedral. We will walk to Santa Cruz, Torre del Oro (the Tower of Gold) and Maria Luisa Park, where the 1992 World Expo was located. In Plaza de España (Spain Square), you can admire crafted porcelain paintings, detailing the history and elegance of historical Spain.

Overnight stay in Seville or city nearby

[Thursday] Seville → Lisbon (460 km)

Today the tour departs for the capital and the largest city of Portugal, Lisbon. You are expected to arrive in Cabo da Roca (Cape Roca) in the afternoon. This is the most western extent of mainland Portugal and continental Europe. At the cape, you can see the enormous Atlantic Ocean surrounded by endless scenery. Don't forget to buy the remembrance certificate to prove that you once set foot on the west point. Later we will head back to the Lisbon city centre and visit the Belém Tower and Jerónimos Monastery, both were classified a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The Belem Tower was important during the Age of Discovery, as this was the place where the ships would depart. The Jerónimos Monastery is one of the most prominent examples of Portuguese Late Gothic Manueline style of architecture in Lisbon. You will pass through the Marquis of Pombal Square and then stop at the Rossio Square for some free time. Those who are interested in Portuguese custard tarts can taste the authentic ones at a century-old bakery.

Overnight stay in Lisbon or city nearby

[Friday] Lisbon → Toledo → Madrid (675 km)

Today we will drive back to Madrid via Toledo, a World Heritage Site declared by UNESCO in 1986 for its extensive cultural and monumental heritage. This old city is located on a mountaintop, surrounded on three sides by a bend in the Tagus River, and contains many historical buildings. By strolling across the city, overlooking the Alcázar of Toledo and visiting the grand structure of the Toledo Cathedral, you will feel the bustling of Spain in the old time. Then take a well-earned rest as you sit back, drive through the breath-taking landscape of Spain and enjoy its rich palette of colours in natural surroundings, while you journey to Madrid.

【Monday】 Barcelona→ Andorra (From October – February to Carcassonne)→ Lourdes (480 km)

In the morning we will travel to the Principality of Andorra. This microstate is located between France and Spain in the eastern Pyrenees. The state is surrounded by mountains and rough terrain. Its capital, Andorra la Vella, is Europe's highest capital with an elevation of 1,023 meters. Andorra is a popular destination for alpine skiing in Europe. Although most Asian travelers do not give Andorra much attention, it is certainly worth a visit with its beautiful sceneries. Also known for duty-free shopping it is a shopping paradise.

After lunch we will drive through the Pyrenees entering France arriving at the town of Lourdes. It is said that the Virgin Mary appeared at Lourdes some 150 years ago and since has become a place of pilgrimage with records of countless medical miracles. Each year over five million pilgrims visit the town.

2nd April – 7th October, 2023 / 7th April – 5th October 2024

For the Pink Line there will be an extra charge of € 15 per person per night for the accommodation. This is due to a higher living standard in Scandinavia.

[Sunday] Copenhagen → Jönköping (330 km)

The day starts with a sightseeing tour of Copenhagen, capital of the Kingdom of Denmark. Reminiscent of childhood memory fairy tales, Hans Christian Andersen's "The Little Mermaid" is the inspiration for the famous statue which was transported to the 2010 Shanghai World Expo and is a true symbol to the Danish people. Amalienborg, your next stop is considered as one of the greatest works of Danish Rococo decoration. Constructed in the 1700's, the architecture consists of four identical palaces connected by a square. If you are lucky you will see the ceremonial changing of the guards, an event that happens every afternoon. The Hans Christian Andersen Boulevard leads to a statue of this notable writer on the City Square. The Danish fairy tale writer known for stories as "The Ugly Duckling" and "The Little Mermaid" had an important motto: "To travel is to live". He spent 43 years traveling abroad, gathering inspiration for his fairy tales and stories from his time overseas. After lunch you continue driving towards Stockholm.

[Thursday] Sogndal → Stegastein Lookout + Aurlandsfjord → Sognefjord Cruise → Flåm (150 km)

In the morning, begin your journey to Geirangerfjord Pier and board a ferry to cross over to the other side. From there, drive to Flåm, where the tour leader has arranged a special experience on one of the world's most stunning railway routes, the Flåm Railway. This exhilarating train ride offers panoramic views of majestic fjords, cascading waterfalls, and picturesque valleys. . Next, drive to the optional activity of Stegastein Viewpoint, a platform that extends from the side of the road and hangs in the air. From this elevated vantage point, you can admire the stunning views of Aurlandsfjord. Aurlandsfjord is one of the most pristine and spectacular branches of the renowned Sognefjord, often referred to as the "King of the Fjords." Here, majestic peaks, lush forests, cascading waterfalls, swirling mists, and the harmonious blend of mountains and water create a magnificent landscape painting (subject to weather conditions for the arrangement). After exploring the Lookout, you will return to Flåm for a delightful lunch.

In the afternoon, under the guidance of the tour leader, enjoy a scenic boat tour as you enter the magnificent Geirangerfjord, marvelling at the awe-inspiring wonders of nature. Geirangerfjord is renowned for being the world's longest and deepest fjord, showcasing unparalleled beauty. Cruise along the fjord for two unforgettable hours, immersing yourself in the captivating scenery. After the boat tour, return to the hotel for a well-deserved dinner.

[Monday] Frankfurt → Bonn → Cologne → Amsterdam (500 km)

The morning begins with a leisurely drive north-west from Frankfurt to Bonn, the capital of the former West Germany until reunification. The national government is now in Berlin, but Bonn retains a rich history that is well worth exploring. Discover the city's secrets on an orientation stroll through its streets, walking past highlights such as the Rococo-fronted town hall and Ludwig Van Beethoven Haus, a museum celebrating the life of the much-loved composer. Then it's on to Cologne, where you'll head inside the city's glorious Gothic Cathedral, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The rest of the afternoon is yours to explore Cologne further, to do a spot of local shopping or to simply relax with a suitably refreshing German brew. After lunch the day is rounded off with a drive into the Netherlands.

[Tuesday] Amsterdam → Zaanse Schans → Amsterdam (50 km)

A day of delights begins with a leisurely trip through the Dutch countryside, where you'll get to sample at close quarters some of the things that the Netherlands is traditionally famous for: clogs, cheese and windmills. Call in at the hugely popular model town of Zaanse Schans. Next, you'll head from the quiet countryside to the cosmopolitan city as your journey takes you back to Amsterdam. After visiting a well-known diamond factory, where you'll see the unique cutting techniques that have been practised here since the 16th century, you can take an optional hour-long pre-dinner canal cruise, which is a great way to discover more about this unique European city. After disembarking you'll walk to one of the city's grandest areas, Dam Square, where the Royal Palace is located and the King's birthday celebration takes place. You'll have photo opportunities here, free time for shopping or further sightseeing, and then round the day off with dinner. Overnight stay in Amsterdam or city nearby

From mid-March to mid-May the tour will also visit Keukenhof Garden, a 32-hectare seasonal exhibition of beautifully coloured and scented displays of spring flowers - most notably millions of tulips. More information please see: www.keukenhof.com

[Wednesday] Amsterdam → Brussels → Rouen (555 km)

. In the morning, depart for the capital of Belgium, Brussels. Start by visiting the Atomium, then explore the Gothic-style City Hall, Grand Place, and the famous Manneken Pis statue in the city center. In the afternoon, drive to France and continue towards the capital of the Normandy region, Rouen. Rouen is known for its rich culinary culture and is also a place of great reverence for the French saint, Joan of Arc, often referred to as the "Maid of Orleans." After arriving, enjoy dinner and return to the hotel for overnight accommodation. Overnight stay in Rouen or city nearby

(Attention: During the Olympic Games in Paris from June to September 2024, the Wednesday itinerary for the Red Line tour is modified as mentioned above. Additionally, there will be no Paris shuttle service provided, and accommodation before or after the tour will not be included.)

[Thursday] Rouen → Mont Saint Michel → Rouen (500 km)

Mont Saint-Michel; It stands on the sea level, like a mystical island in the sea, often surrounded by vast stretches of sand that only become an island at low tide. When the tide rises, the water rushes in, turning the surroundings into a vast expanse. From a distance, the pyramid-shaped silhouette of Mont Saint-Michel emerges on the endless sea of sand, like a mirage, both enchanting and dreamlike. Mont Saint-Michel is the third most sacred site in Catholicism, after Jerusalem and the Vatican. In 1979, it was included in the UNESCO World Heritage List.

[Saturday] Chateau Thierry → Reims → Luxembourg (292 km)

The Red Line tour leaves from Paris for a delightful scenic journey through the rolling countryside of the Champagne region, famous the world over for the sparkling white wine produced here. Enjoy seeing the historic attractions of provincial capital Reims, including the city's cathedral – a key national heritage site, where coronations of French kings took place from the 11th century onwards. History and tradition are equally evident in your next location: Luxembourg, the world's only remaining Grand Duchy. After arriving in refined Luxembourg city, you'll be introduced on foot to the main places of interest, including the Place de Constitution and Pont Adolphe, before having time for further exploration on your own.

[Sunday] Luxembourg → Trier → Koblenz → Rudesheim am Rhein → Frankfurt (400 km)

Today we leave Luxembourg behind and head across another European border into Germany. The first stop is historic Trier, Germany's oldest city and the birthplace of Karl Marx. You'll have the chance to see from the outside the house where the influential philosopher was born, which now functions as the Karl Marx Haus museum. Your walking tour then takes you into the centre of Trier; here you can look around the city's impressive cathedral, where the celebrated Holy Robe – said to be the tunic of Christ – is preserved and occasionally displayed. Trier is also known as 'The Second Rome' (Constantine served as an administrator here for 10 years), and significant legacies of the once-great empire remain today. The highlight is undoubtedly Porta Nigra, the best-preserved Roman city gate north of the Alps, which you'll get to see and photograph. After an exciting morning in Trier, you'll drive on to Koblenz, famous as the location of the confluence of the Rhine and Mosel rivers. Here you have the option of indulging in a relaxing lunch alongside the water, then afterwards you can also choose to add on a scenic Rhine boat cruise for some memorable city vistas. Back on dry land you'll drive through the wine-making town of Rudesheim (depending on road and traffic conditions). Then it is on to Frankfurt am Main, where you'll discover the delights of Römerberg, a charming plaza with a distinctive medieval town hall as its centrepiece
